Spirit of Christmas Present (Gender Neutral)

I see a vacant seat in the poor chimney-corner, and a crutch without an owner, carefully preserved. If these shadows remain unaltered by the Future, the child will die. If these shadows remain unaltered by the Future, none other of my race will find him here. What then? If he be like to die, he had better do it, and decrease the surplus population.

Mrs. Cratchit

(speaking to her husband and children) It should be Christmas Day, I am sure, on which one drinks the health of such an odious, stingy, hard, unfeeling man as Mr. Scrooge. You know he is, Robert! Nobody knows it better than you do! I'll drink to his health for your sake and the day's – not for his. Long life to him! A merry Christmas and a happy New Year! He'll be very much merry and very much happy; I have no doubt. To Mr. Scrooge.
